Drop-off and pick up times are Monday-Friday from 9am to 5pm unless prior arrangements are made. One days care will be charged for drop off before noon or pick up after 5pm. There is a $10.00 per hour late charge assessed, when applicable. Your pet will be cared for according to your instructions to the best of our ability. If an unforeseen health problem should arise, a veterinarian (other than your own) may be consulted. We are not responsible for injury or loss of your pet due to natural disaster; i.e. Tornado, fire, electrical storm, etc. Any bird that is left over 7 days past the pick up date will be assumed abandoned and may be found a new home unless we have been notified of the delay.

I am aware that birds with behavioral issues such as feather destruction, phobias or anxiety attacks and older birds can become overly stressed when being boarded which in turn can cause these underlying issues to become magnified and can in extreme cases cause cardiac failure and death. I have discussed these issues with my veterinarian and hold Ollies Parrots Perch harmless should such problems occur while my bird is being boarded. I have read and accepted the terms set forth herein.
